

Degol Laboratory and Environment Service Inc. was founded and started operation in Ankara in order to contribute the protection of environment in 2010. One of the leaders in its sector, Degol includes a team which follows improvements in their fields, integrating technological and informational studies, dynamic and researcher. Our laboratory aims to broaden its operations with a professional approach.

Degol Laboratory and Environment Service Inc plans to give service to many companies and foundation for environmental subjects within National and International standards. Our laboratory aims to be a searched company with its feasibility studies, water and weather quality assessments, noise assessments, acoustic report preparation, Geographical Information Service (GIS) implications and environmental models.

The academics contacts of Degol is also strong. It has many contacts with the academicians of Hacettepe University, Ankara University, Gazi University beside Orta Dogu Technical University from which its founders have graduated.,

Our company aims customer content in every service and adapt the principle of sustainable development and sustainable environment.